They seek to develop opportunities for Ireland's churches to work together, to provide a Christian voice in society, and so witness to their common belief in Jesus Christ.

The Irish Council of Churches (ICC) currently has fifteen member churches. It is one of the longest serving established national ecumenical bodies in the world, celebrating its centenary in 2023, and has a proud track record of addressing issues of justice, peace and integration as well as facilitating collaboration on key contemporary priorities.

The Irish Inter-Church Meeting (IICM) is the way in which the ICC churches and the Roman Catholic Church collaborate ecumenically (see www.irishchurches.org/about for more details on these structures).
