Background

We seek to develop and provide a voice for Ireland's churches to connect through a common belief in Christ. Our vision is to be a benchmark of unity in Christ for churches and communities globally. We run a wide variety of events and meetings, across the island of Ireland, to realise our vision and engage with people and partners from across the churches. We seek a friendly and enthusiastic individual to set our values of integrity, trust and respect at the heart of our finance and administration.

Together with the Irish Inter Church Meeting our members are the fifteen main Christian Churches in Ireland. We are one of the longest serving, established national ecumenical bodies in the world and have a proud track record of addressing issues of justice, peace, reconciliation and integration as well as facilitating collaboration on key contemporary priorities.

Together with our part-time Communications and Administration Assistant you will share the administration of the organisation, ensuring the office is covered at all times. You will be the first point of contact for our members, partners and tenants, managing our administration and finances to ensure the smooth running of the organisation. You will be a vital member of a small team providing key support to the General Secretary in our Belfast headquarters and financial administration for the Programme Officer, based in Dublin.
